Fife Heritage Railway – Diesel Day Sunday 27th July

Have the chance to drive one of the diesel locomotives. North British No.400 “River Eden” will be in operation on the “Driver for a Fiver” experience. Tickets can be bought at the ticket office. This event runs until 4 pm this afternoon.

Looking for somewhere different for coffee?

Why not try visiting Strathmiglo Church Building Antique Centre and Café?

Situated just off the A91 between Auchtermuchty and Gateside, what was the Strathmiglo Church building, having been sold, is now an antique centre and café. Coffee or tea is served in a picnic basket with your choice of cake or scone. Tables are situated in what was the sanctuary or if the weather is good, you can sit outside.

The funeral service for Mrs Ann Mitchell will take place here at Pathhead Church on Wednesday 6th August at 10 am, followed by a private committal at the crematorium.

Our thoughts and prayers are with Ann’s family and friends at this time.
